NEW MARKETS PLANNED -- Politika. No 13247. 26 May 49

Belgrade markets have been receiving unusually large shipments of fresh salt-water fish of late. An average of five carloads of fish per day, packed in ice, are arriving in Belgrade. Each market receives 500 - 1,000 kilograms of fish per day. Plenty of fish will be received throughout the season to meet consumer demand.

New markets will be opened in parts of the city and suburbs that have had none in the past.

Eardines, which are fat and nutritious in summer, are the only fish received so far. Other kinds of fish will arrive later.

Fish are for sale on the free market at 20 dinars per kilogram.
